

Italian, Words and Music <sup>[1]</sup>

The linguistic charm of “bel canto”: learn Italian through music and words.

Music and words to learn Italian: an intensive Italian language course combined with the concerts of “MITO SettembreMusica” <sup>[2]</sup>.

The Italian courses are held in the morning in small groups, according to level (12-15 students).

In the afternoon you can focus on specific aspects related to music, choosing from many activities: seminarsto improve your pronunciation with the same exercises used by professional opera singers, visit Turin’s keymusic locations (theaters, auditoriums, conservatory) and meet the protagonists of the Italian andinternational music scene.

As an alternative to cultural activities in the afternoon, participants can opt for personalized languageexercises in language labs, with the support of young tutors.

In the evening they can attend the “MITO SettembreMusica” concerts, the music event that has beenbrightening up the city and attracting internationally renowned artists for 30 years.
